25X1 9. [] Met with Diann McCormick, in the office of 25X1 Representative Ken Hechler (D., Va.), and left with her such information as [] would need in order to set up an appointment with our Personnel representatives at Rosslyn, Virginia. I said our office would be pleased to do this for him if this would be helpful. Miss McCormick extended her appreciation for our courtesy and seemed to fully understand our nonproselytiz-ing policy.

25X1 11. [] On referral from Mr. Doug Cummins, FMSAC, I returned the call of Frank Castagliola, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, who was then in the Jackson Subcommittee hearings and wanted unclassified information, if any, on the SCRAP Missile. [] advised that such information would not be unclassified and to close the loop I so advised Mr. Castagliola. Later in the day I also briefly spoke to Mr. Richard Kimmel and George Murphy, of the Committee staff, to confirm Castagliola's status and mentioned that calls such as this were outside of the normal channels of communication between the Agency and the Committee.
